Historical Note

Since its founding in 1970 and its opening in September of 1971, LaGuardia Community College has been in almost constant state of evolution. From an original freshman class of 540 students, one building and a half dozen academic programs, LaGuardia has grown to over 11,000 matriculated students, four buildings and 22 academic majors. Along the way, the LaGuardia community has organized and participated in countless programs. These include; talent shows, cultural events, social gatherings, ceremonies athletic competitions, continuing education courses and many other important events. New departments, student organizations and facilities have been added over the years, not to mention the many faculty, staff and students that form the heart and soul of LaGuardia Community College.

This transformation from a small urban community college, to a nationally recognized institution of higher education, is documented in over 750 photographs. These images have been organized and preserved by the Institutional Archives and are available to faculty, students and independent researchers. It is a collection that chronicles the vibrant history of LaGuardia Community College, in black and white, as well as color photographs. Researchers who are interested in tracing the history and growth of the College through photographic images of people and events, will find this collection particularly useful.

Scope and Content Note

The Institutional Archives contains more than 750 black and white, as well as color photographs. These images document the history of LaGuardia Community College from its inception in 1971 through the 1990's. The collection is contained in 14 archival boxes and comprises approximately 7 cubic feet. The collection is divided into the following 9 series: Faculty/Staff, students, Activities at LaGuardia, Activities Outside LaGuardia, Dignitaries, CUNY, Other, Unknown and Facilities. The collection was donated to the Institutional Archives by individual faculty and staff members as well as departments from within the College.

With the exception of the photographs in the "Unknown" Category, all images have been identified and many dated. A list containing the identification of each photograph is included with this Finding Aid. The list is divided by category and includes the box numbers where each photograph is stored.

This specific finding aid represents all of the photos that focus on different faculty and staff in the college. Photos are listed by department where known, otherwise alphabetically by first name. If there are any spelling corrections that need to be made please contact us at Valerie@lagcc.cuny.edu or Tcleary@lagcc.cuny.edu. Also any help associating people with departments is welcomed!
